20.10.50. 9) As per ruling given in the G.O. dated 30th October 1950, the date of birth of Janab Nazir Ahmed Meccai is August 1891 and the officer attained the age of Superannuation in August 1946. He has been permitted to retire from Service with effect from 25th October 1950. This amounts to the services of this officer having been extended by about 4 ~~years~~ years and 2 months. This is due to the ~~discovery~~ incorrect ~~entry~~ date of birth furnished by the officer at the time of his entry into service. When the officer had had thereby the benefit of extension of Service by more than four years, which is a very rare event in the career of an officer, to grant him a further concession in the shape of leave to the extent of one year does not appear to be reasonable.

10) ~~Accordingly~~ All the leave earned by an officer before he attains the age of superannuation lapses on the date of superannuation and an officer retained in service after he superannuates earns only privilege leave. The total amount of privilege leave that an officer can be given at a time cannot be more than 3 months. Though the officer has remained in service for more than four years after attaining the age of superannuation the maximum amount of privilege leave that may be granted to him, can be only three months and nothing more. No furlough can be granted to him, partly because he earns no furlough during extension of service and partly because the furlough earned by him prior to superannuation has not been applied for by the officer and refused.

11) In the above circumstances no case has been made out for the grant of one year's Combined leave to Janab Nazir Ahmed Ahmed Meccai.

12) Under Art. 272, M.S.R. Govt may Condone a deficiency not exceeding twelve months. It is stated that the officer has put in a service of 23 years 4 months and 17 days and how much of it is qualifying service may have to be ascertained from the A.G. As it is, a deficiency of 7 months and 13 days is required to make up a total service of 24 years. As it is within the period admissible under Art 272, M.S.R, it may be sanctioned.

COUNCIL NOTE.

Subject: Representation of Janab Nasir Ahmed Moosai, Assistant Commissioner (Retired).

Janab Nasir Ahmed Moosai, Asst Commissioner, was retired from service with effect from 25th October 1950 on account of a large discrepancy noticed between the age given by him at the time of his admission Exams into the College and that given by him at the time of his entry into service.

This Officer has since represented that by his sudden retirement from service, his total service gets itself reduced to only 23 years, 4 months and 17 days and thereby, his pension also gets reduced by a substantial amount. The Revenue Commissioner has reported that he was entitled to one year's combined leave on the date of his retirement (viz., 25th October 1950) and recommends (a) that, in view of his loyal service for over 23 years, he may be granted one year's combined leave from 25th October 1950 and (b) the deficiency of service amounting to 7 months and 13 days be condoned.

Regarding condonation of a deficiency of service amounting to 7 months and 13 days, under Article 272 of Mysore Service Regulations, Government may condone a deficiency not exceeding twelve months.

As per ruling given in the Government Order dated 30th October 1950, the date of birth of Janab Nasir Ahmed Moosai is August 1891 and the Officer attained the age of superannuation in August 1950. He had been permitted to retire from service with effect from 25th October 1950. This amounts to the services of this officer having been extended by about 4 years and 2 months. This is due to the incorrect date of birth furnished by the Officer at the time of his entry into service. When the Officer has had thereby the benefit of extension of service by more than four years, which is a very rare event in the career of an Officer, to grant him a further concession in the shape of leave to the extent of one year does not appear to be reasonable.

All the leave earned by an Officer before he attains the age of superannuation lapses on the date of superannuation and an Officer retained in service after he superannuates earns only privilege leave. The total amount of privilege leave that an Officer can be given at a time cannot be more than 3 months. Though the Officer had remained in service for more than four years after attaining the age of superannuation the maximum amount of privilege leave that may be granted to him can only be only three months and nothing more. No furlough can be granted to him, partly because he earns no furlough during extension of service and partly because the furlough earned by him prior to superannuation has not been applied for by the Officer and refused.

The Chief Secretary has noted on the case as follows:-

"The deficiency of 7 months and odd may be condoned.- leave not exceeding six months may be granted also to the officer, as has been done in several cases and he may be retired at the end of it, in which case, the deficiency to be condoned would be ~~xxxx~~ less.

Perhaps, a finding regarding his age has to be recorded by a separate resolution."

The Financial Secretary has noted as follows:-

"I think that the grant in this case of any leave is financially unacceptable. The deficiency of 7 months and 15 dys may be condoned so that the total service may be 24 years."

The Hon'ble the Chief Minister has minuted as under:-

The case is for discussion at a meeting of the Council.

Sir,

Subject:- Grant of leave to and condonation of deficiency of service of Janab Nazir Ahmed Meccai, Retired Assistant Commissioner.

I have the honour to forward herewith the representation of Janab Nazir Ahmed Meccai, Retired Assistant Commissioner, praying for certain relief to enable him to earn his full pension and to state as follows:-

The Officer represents that in consequence of Government Order No.10940-42/C.B.16-50-37 dated 30th October 1950 ordering his sudden retirment from service on account of certain age discrepancies, he is put to grave hardship as the total period of his service works up to only 23 years 4 months and 17 days, which curtails his pension by a substantial amount. He also states that on account of his sudden retirement, he was deprived of an opportunity to avail his hard earned leave which he had not utilised during his service.

The hardship experienced by the Officer appears appears to me to be very genuine. Janab Meccai was entitled to one year's combined leave on the date of his retirement viz. 25th October 1950, the benefit of which he was deprived by his sudden retirement. In view of the very loyal and good work turned out by this Officer for a long period of over 23 years, it would be hard to deny him the benefit of this hard earned leave. Such a concession seems to have been extended to certain other officers more or less similarly circumstanced. If this period of leave for one year is sanctioned to the Officer, his total service extends to 24 years 4 months and 17 days, which will be short of qualifying service for full pension by 7 months 13 days. If this small deficiency is condoned the Officer will earn his full pension of about Rs 215-0-0 against Rs 161-12-0 to which he would be strictly eligible otherwise.

I am of opinion that in view of the loyal service rendered by this Officer and the good work done by him his case deserves a very sympathetic consideration of Government. I strongly recommend that Government may be pleased to sanction 1 year's combined leave (3 months privilege leave and 3 months furlough on full average salary plus 6 months furlough on half pay) to Janab Nazir Ahmed Meccai from the date of his retirement viz. 25th October 1950 and to condone the deficiency of 7 months 13 days by which his service falls short of the qualifying service for full pension.

I request early orders of Government may be kindly obtained in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

Revenue Commissioner.

I beg to invite reference of Government to their order No. 10940-42/C.B.16-50-37 dated 30th October 1950 ordering my retirement from service (as Additional Assistant to the Revenue Commis--sioner) with immediate effect due to certain dis--crepancy in age and beg to state that in pursuance of the above order, I am retired from service with effect from 25th October 1950. Government have - been pleased to treat my service from 1st August - 1946 to 24th October 1950 as a period of extension of service.

I beg to state that the total period of ser--vice put in by me up to the date of retirement works up to only 23 years 4 months and 17 days - from which it could be seen that inspite of having served as a loyal subordinate and to the entire - satisfaction of my official superiors, for such a long period as above, I am unable to get the benefit of the full pension. As circumstances stand, I lose a substantial amount in my pension and this will work as a great hardship on myself and my - family which I have to maintain during these hard days.

In this connection, I beg to state that during my service, I have not taken any long leave owing to exigencies of official work and now that I was suddenly retired, I could not avail of the benefit of leave to which I was entitled to. However, - since four years of extension has been given to me, I am entitled to full three months privilege leave and the maximum period of furlough at the time I am ordered to retire. Since the order of retirement was made all of a sudden and without previous intiintimation, I had no occasion to apply for the same as required under Article 147 (a), Mysore Service - Regulations. According to the Article 147 (b), I pray in view of the satisfactory service which I have rendered to Government and the special circumstances under which I was made to retire, that the period of leave at my credit on that date may kindly be ordered to be granted.

-mation

If this period of leave is sanctioned, the total service will amount to 24 years 1 month and 17 days and will be of some relief to me as it will augment my pension. Otherwise, it will be hard hit for me at my old age and that too after the end of such a long period of loyal service to the State.

Therefore, I pray that the benign Government be pleased to grant the leave prayed for and also condone the small deficiency in the period of total service and help a loyal servant of the State in getting an arbitrary pension equal to half the average emoluments.

For which act of kindness, I shall ever feel - grateful.

Yours faithfully,
